Sean Hannity is Moving to 105.7 FM KNRS

The Sean Hannity Show is moving to 105.7 FM KNRS on October 4th.

“Sean Hannity is one of the biggest names in talk radio and has a track record of success in Utah since 2001. Sean and his listeners will be right at home on 105.7 FM KNRS. He joins a stellar talk show line-up that includes Glenn Beck, Rush Limbaugh and Dave Ramsey” said Stu Stanek, General Manager of 105.7 FM KNRS.

Stanek added “Sean has a large, loyal following in Utah, which is evident by his dominant ratings for over eight years. Sean has also served as host of Stadium of Fire and publicly debated former Salt Lake City Mayor Rocky Anderson. We're confident that Sean's fans will embrace his show on 105.7 FM KNRS.”

With Sean Hannity moving to 105.7 FM KNRS, The Dr. Laura Program will move to our sister-station, Freedom 570 AM. "Dr. Laura has been Utah's moral advisor for well over a decade, and we're pleased to continue bringing her program to her many fans. Dr. Laura will continue to be heard live in her regular timeslot – weekdays 1pm-4pm – but she will now be heard on Freedom 570 AM", said Stu Stanek.

The Sean Hannity Show will be heard live every weekday from 1pm until 4pm immediately following The Rush Limbaugh Program. Weekday mornings at 6:30am, 105.7 FM KNRS will air The Sean Hannity Morning Minute, a daily commentary on the top stories of the day. Plus, The Sean Hannity Weekend Show will be heard every Sunday from 1pm until 4pm on 105.7 FM KNRS.

In addition to listening at 105.7 FM, Sean Hannity – and all KNRS programming – may be heard live online at KNRS.com and via BlackBerry, iPhone or Android mobile devices using the free iHeartRadio application available at KNRS.com.
